

Ripples of Hope

celebrating the power of service

City Year Seattle/King County
Annual Benefit Gala & Auction

Everyday City Year Seattle/King County corps members are in our schools tutoring, mentoring and inspiring our kids to make smarter and healthier choices about their lives. In our ten years, City Year corps members have contributed nearly 1 million hours of service to youth in King County—service that has helped our area's at-risk kids become confident, compassionate, and active citizens.

Ripples of Hope 2009 is City Year Seattle/King County's 6th annual gala event. This is your opportunity to be a part of one of the most inspirational and festive Seattle events of the year. City Year Seattle/King County will present the 2009 Lifetime of Service Award to William Bell, President and CEO of Casey Family Programs and Bill Neukom, CEO and Managing General Partner of the San Francisco Giants. Both exemplify the spirit of service, bridge-building, and a commitment to the common good that City Year seeks to instill in all of its corps members. You and your guests will be treated to great food and an opportunity to enjoy the company of Seattle/King County's most involved and influential citizens.

Past honorees include: Bob Watt, Vice President of Government & Community Relations at The Boeing Company (2004), Mike McGavick, former CEO of Safeco Insurance (2005), Phyllis J. Campbell, President and CEO of The Seattle Foundation (2006), Sally Jewell, President and CEO of REI (2007), and Bill Gates, Sr. and Mimi Gardner-Gates (2008).
