MARTINE PASQUET

Director, Human Resources

Royal Caribbean International

Martine Pasquet's professional career began as a technical writer and analyst for a major insurance provider. Entering management as a securities manager for a major bank on the West Coast, Martine worked in various mid-level management operations functions in banking for most of the 1980's.

In 1992 Martine began a new career in human resources. She was the on-site manager for a staffing company based in a major insurance company. Acquiring a senior professional in human resources certification, she was then promoted in the insurance company from manager to director for operations throughout the U.S. After several years in the capacity as director, Martine changed industries and accepted a position in human resources with Royal Caribbean Cruises Ltd. Martine has been with the company close to six years, and she serves as corporate director of human resources.

Martine is a graduate of Florida international University with a bachelors degree in English Literature. She also holds a Master of Arts degree in International Affairs from the Center of Advanced International Studies at the University of Miami.
