CITY YEAR PHILADELPHIA

Women’s Leadership Luncheon

10.13.2020

The Crystal Tea Room
Wanamaker Building, 100 E. Penn Square
Philadelphia, PA 19107
About the Event:

The Women’s Leadership Luncheon unites women to support the service of City Year AmeriCorps members inside Philadelphia schools while also inspiring women’s empowerment.

This year’s event will bring together a panel of women who are leading and inspiring change in the city of Philadelphia. The year 2020 marks two pivotal turning points in our country’s history: the 100th Anniversary of the 19th Amendment guaranteeing women’s constitutional right to vote and the 55th anniversary of the Voting Rights Act of 1965 which prohibited racial discrimination in voting. Join City Year, Councilwoman Maria Quiñones Sánchez, Jasmine Sessoms, and Alison Young for a robust conversation on why all women’s voices matter in voting, activism, and civic engagement.

Featured Panelists:

Councilwoman Maria D. Quiñones Sánchez
Jasmine E. Sessoms, Founder and CEO of She Can Win
Hon. Alison T. Young, Managing Partner of Red, White and Blue Strategies

Moderated by:

Raquel M. Arredondo, MA, PHR, Associate Director Outreach, Engagement & Professional Development, Drexel University LeBow College Of Business

About City Year Philadelphia

City Year helps students and schools succeed. In 19 schools across Philadelphia, diverse teams of City Year AmeriCorps members provide support to students, classrooms and the whole school, helping to ensure that students in systemically under-resourced schools receive a high-quality education that prepares them with the skills and mindsets to thrive and contribute to their community.

A proud member of the AmeriCorps national service network, City Year is supported by the Corporation for National and Community Service, local school districts, and private philanthropy. City Year partners with public schools in 29 communities across the U.S. and through international affiliates in the U.K. and South Africa.
