STARFISH STORY – A STORY OF STUDENT IMPACT

BY YULEIMY LATOUCHE

“A student that I’ve been focusing on for a few months and he was very none responsive until now. He starting to come to tutoring, being more interactive in class and becoming more vocal in the class room. For months I didn’t even know how his voice sounded like, come to find out he is apart of the school’s speech tharapy program and he is working on better improving his speech.”

When Tationa began the service year, she noticed that the classroom number she was serving in was the same as her address and everything seems to just be going right. She has a vivacious personality and a stand
