STARFISH STORY – A STORY OF STUDENT IMPACT

BY YULEIMY LATOUCHE

One of my students has improved drastically in my class. He went from not communicated at all verbally, to him speaking up in class, standing up and advocating for himself. Turns out this student was in speech therapy all year. I thought for a while he was just being disrespectful and not wanting to speak to others. This for me was a prime example of how not judging a book by its cover.
