

PHILADELPHIA
25TH ANNIVERSARY

2022-23 IMPACT REPORT

CITY YEAR PHILADELPHIA

MESSAGE FROM OUR EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR

What a 25th Anniversary for City Year Philadelphia! We are honored to have partnered with you as we celebrated this important milestone.

We could not have done it without all of you who support us—this speaks to the power of partnership, the power of collaboration. We are grateful for your time, talent and treasure toward spreading the idealism of our AmeriCorps members, who support our students with the relationships and resources they need and deserve, to thrive in school and in life.

As they serve, our AmeriCorps members also develop themselves, learning to work across lines of difference and becoming our next generation of civically engaged leaders.

To our Team and Program sponsors, our donors and champions who have impacted City Year Philadelphia, we stand on your shoulders. You are all a part of City Year Philly's living legacy—a legacy of now 25 years!

With gratitude,

Darryl Bundrige
Executive Director & Senior Vice President
City Year Philadelphia

STORIES FROM SERVICE

One of my students, R.T., struggled with being awake in the mornings, had a difficult time following instruction, resisted additional support that came his way, and had conflicts with his peers. He did not trust me in the beginning, and there was no way that he was going to take my word for anything. R.T was guarded, and I understood that. I showed up day in and day out by asking him how he was, affirming him on the great things he was doing, and comforting him through the challenging emotions and situations he faced.

R.T. slowly started to trust my words and sought me out throughout different times of the day to check over his work and give him pieces of advice. He was difficult to understand and get through, but those encouraging words I poured into him and moments where I intentionally showed up made a difference. Advocating for R.T.'s needs and speaking about my observations to my partner teacher created change within and outside of the classroom.

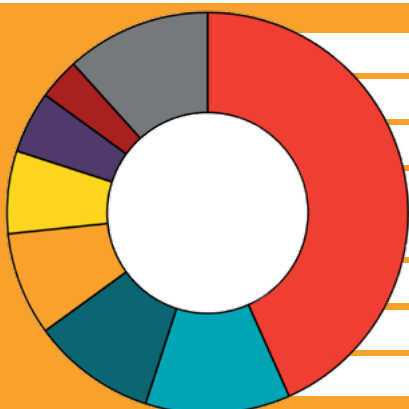

Moments like these have cemented what it means to belong within a community and cultivate safe spaces with intentionality and cultural awareness. City Year has pushed me to be a better mentor, tutor, and overall person within the spaces I enter.

City Year is a trailblazing, youth-powered organization with a dual mission: expanding educational equity for students furthest from opportunity and developing diverse leaders through national service. Research shows the more time a student spends with a City Year AmeriCorps member serving as student success coach, the better the student outcomes—academically, socially, and emotionally. A public-private partnership, City Year is a proud member of AmeriCorps, operating in 29 U.S. cities with international affiliates in the U.K. and South Africa. Today, 37,000 alums continue to lead and serve where they live and work. Learn more about City Year’s six areas of impact: www.cityyear.org.
